Note

It is the responsibility of the individual to correct any errors printed on this report by contacting the ESR Office by mail, fax, or email. This confirmation of attendance is available only to the designated individual and will not be supplied to accrediting agencies or other organisations/health authorities. It can be downloaded and printed out via the MyUserArea at www.myESR.org/myuserarea.

CONTINUING EDUCATION (CME) ACCREDITATION

The event has been accredited by the UEMS-EACCME and it is possible to claim a maximum of 28 CME points for attendance of scientific sessions at the ECR. Please note that this number may differ from the maximum number of credits your national jurisdiction approves for your continuous medical education.

The Österreichische Ärztekammer (Austrian Medical Chamber) has granted a maximum of 40 DFP (Diplom-Fortbildungs-Programm der Österreichischen Akademie der Ärzte) credits for the ECR 2017.

USA and Canada

Following the agreement on the mutual recognition of credits between the AMA (American Medical Association), the RCPSC (Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons in Canada) and the UEMS-EACCME, American and Canadian physicians attending a UEMS-EACCME accredited event in Europe will have their credits converted to AMA PRA Category 1 in the US and MOC Section 1 credits in Canada.

Worldwide

CME points claimed at the ECR are accepted by the majority of national CME authorities worldwide, which have mandatory CME for their physicians. Please consult your national jurisdiction for the maximum number of CME points they will approve following your attendance at ECR 2017.
